

Patient Mithun (Real name S Devi) referred by Jay Ambe Mahila Mandbudhi Ashram, Gujarat has been reunited with her husband and son after 4 years.

At Post Jarmundi, District Dumka, State Jharkhand.

5 years ago, due to the superstition of black magic, the villagers considered Patient Mithun as a witch and because of that, the villagers beat Mithun and her husband, due to which Mithun suffered mentally and left the house.

In 2017, her family members had filed a missing complaint in the local police station. Those people searched a lot for Mithun, but she was not found. Her husband was very happy after seeing her. Response of her family was excellent.

This area is very dangerous so I took the help of local police. They have arranged room for me to stay here for the night.

Regards, Laxmipriya Bishoi. Date of Reunion: 10th Nov 2021
